Program Note by Terry Feng:

*Listen at what you hear
Question not what you see
But explore how it came to be*

Artist Bio:

Terry Feng is a graduating senior from the University of California, San Diego, completing his B.A. in Music with an emphasis in Piano Performance and B.S in Computer Science. His musical journey began from the piano at the age of five and has since blossomed through violin, composition, and computer music. From composing for orchestra to producing albums such as Library of Dreams and sketchbook, Terry is driven to challenge musicians and audiences alike to push the boundary of creative musical experience.

Tonight's concert would not have been possible without my piano teachers Dimitrios Paganos Koukakis, DMA '22, and Distinguished Professor Aleck Karis.
